Driven Drive 2 James Sallis I hadn't yet read DRIVE, which was made into a Hollywood movie, so I approached the sequel, DRIVEN without any preconceptions or comparisons to be made between the two tales. Reading DRIVEN cemented my appreciation for James Sallis's talent, which I'd first experienced last year with SALT RIVER. Driven (Drive, #2) by James Sallis As with Drive, Sallis spent the book building up tension that one would expect to be dispelled after some climactic event. This style of writing, in addition to the fact that the book was marketed as a sequel to drive, left even more of a sour taste in my mouth when I was presented with yet another open
