According to ALA.org this book is on the frequently challenged book list mainly because it shows some topics that may be controversial. The main topic this book has is nudity. In the text Children's Literature Briefly 7th ed Draw Me a Star by Eric Carle - Goodreads So Silver Bright (Eyes Like Stars Book 3)- Lisa Mantchev Now I know, you're all itching for some juicy tidbits as to what happens in this book. I will not give them to you, so stop the begging. You must read them for yourself. They must be experienced; you must revel and rage as I did reading them. So Silver Bright (Théâtre Illuminata, #3) by Lisa Mantchev For example, Jack and Odessa in "Star Bright!" are pretty much mirror images of Dermot and Nuala from the Nuala Anne books. There are a lot of recurring elements other than that as well. I do enjoy reading the stories anyway, though. And part of what gets me is religious "mysticism." There's a lot of that in this book, and it's beautifully written. Star Bright!: A Christmas Story by Andrew M.
