Dogs barking, cats meowing, and birds chirping are just some of these common languages. The truth is, animals speak a wide variety of languages that are in fact innumerable. Animal Languages | How Many Languages Do Animals Speak? Animal languages are forms of non-human animal communication that show similarities to human language. Animals communicate by using a variety of signs such as sounds or movements. Such signing may be considered complex enough to be called a form of language if the inventory of signs is large, the signs are relatively arbitrary, and the animals seem to produce them with a degree of volition. In experimental tests, animal communication may also be evidenced through the use of lexigrams. While the Animal
