Often, services begin with joyous praise songs and transition to a quieter, more introspective opportunity for worship. Worship is an attitude of the heart. A person can go through the outward motions and not be worshipping (Psalm 51:16-17; Matthew 6:5-6). God sees the heart, and He desires and deserves sincere, heartfelt praise and worship. What is the difference between praise and worship ... It is indeed a challenge for a praise and worship leader to find a balance between a hip music while looking for an anointed song. It is easy to find a fast song. But to find a song with a catchy beat, tune, at the same time good theology, singable by the congregation AND a special “umph” of God is hard to find.
